DEMOCRATIC & CONSERVATIVE

JOHN M. PHELPS, of Mason County. REGISTRATION.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE,

Mr. Alfred O'Bannon having declined to act as registrar for this township, Mr. E. J. Williams has received the appointment, and opened his registration books in "Hooff's Building," yesterday. Mr. Williams will sit at this place to-day, and on each Tuesday of the next two weeks, for the registration of qualified voters. Let no one who is entitled to vote neglect this matter. In the language of the Wheeling Register, every man who thinks he is entitled to vote should apply to have his name put on the books, and every man who has ever been stricken off the register should go before the county Board and have his name put on again. They must assert their rights without fear, and maintain them with dignity and spirit. Registration, we believe, is to last for ten days; but let none of our people postpone registration until the last day. Delays are frequently dangerous ; and what can be done well to day should never be postponed until to-morrow. We hope this advice will be heeded by every voter, and that in every county and township in the State they will march shoulder to shoulder to the field of duty.

SHENANDOAH VALLEY R. R. Speech of Hon. A. R. Boteler.

On the 18th instant, Hons. A. R. Boteler and Wm, H. Travers repaired to Philadelphia to attend a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Shenandoah Valley Railroad, held for the purpose of fixing upon the route and concluding the contract for the construction of said road. They found three routes competing for the road; all practical, backed by monied corporations, and urged by ardent friends, but the advantages of our route predominated, and the contract was signed, sealed, and delivered for the construction of the road from the Potomac to Salem, on the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad, a distance of 230 miles, in two years, or a forfeit of a half million

Mr. Boteler returned on Monday evening of last week, and on Tuesday night, as we learn from the Register, Criswell's Cornet Band, at the request of the citizens, complimented him with a serenade, as an evidence of their gratitude and appreciation of his

The Hon. gentleman soon made his appearance, and in a few brief and appropriate remarks thanked them for their compliment and kindness. He said the County subscription of $250,000 was one great inducement to the adopting of this route as it showed the people were in earnest, and were endeavoring to carry out true reconstruction in uniting together the North and South by bands of iron, though they had been impoverished by war and discouraged in many other ways .-He assured them the work would be commenced at Shepherdstown in less than thirty days, or as soon as the damages could be assessed, and that the road would be completed the cars running to Charlestown by Christmas, and if it was an open winter, to Front Royal, the terminus of the first division, by May 1st, 1871. He had seen the maps and profiles of the entire route and knew the estimated cost of every mile of the road. The first mile from the river would cost $57,000, (this must be undoubtedly a typographical error of the Register, as we are assured by competent authority that $57,000 is about $40,000 in excess of the actual estimated cost,) but the road through the county would cost $197,-000, exclusive of iron, thus leaving fifty-three thousand dollars to lay the track. How is It?

A friend from Gerardstown, who was interested in some law business before the Circuit Court of this county, which by law has to be published in the newspapers, wants to know why none of these publications are inserted in the Valley Star. He says "that in the Southern end of the county the Valley Star has more than treble the circulation of both the other county papers together, and yet if persons want information in regard to law proceedings, they must seek it through these limited sources. "We have but to say to our correspondent that the Judge of the Circuit Court has the power under the law, of selecting in which papers these publications shall be made. It is one of those little arrangements made by a radical legislature to throw patronage into the hands of party favorites. We intend to lay the matter however, before Judge Chapline at the next term of the Court, and we greatly mistake the man if he does not apply the proper remedy. Besides the great saving to litigants by publishing Court orders in the Star, the informasion itself will reach many more people, as we are fully prepared to show.

[Valley Star. This is another of the iniquitous laws passed by a corrupt and tyrannical Radical legislature, by which an immense weapon is placed in the hands of partisan political judges, for the purpose of crushing out fearless and outspoken Democratic and Conservative newspapers in this State. By it the Spirit of Jefferson is excluded from all benefits deriving from the publication of commissioners notices, etc., in which so many of our people are interested, and the mass of such matter is inserted in the columns of a paper having about one-half the circulation of ours, and which is scarcely read in the South eastern section of the county. We are poor, and need every possible source of revenue that can be honorably obtained, but we cannot afford to barter our independence for the pecuniary favors of a Radical judge. We rely upon the patronage of a generous white man's party for support, and when that fails us we will "go to the wall." rather than sacrifice the freedom of the press for such a price. We trust that the Conservative and Democratic Senators and Delegates elected to the next Legislature, will go there pledged to repeal this obnoxious and vicious law, which stands upon our statutebooks as a premium for political treachery.

THE BERKELEY UNION.

In the last number of the Berkeley Union we find one of the most gross and flagrant misrepresentations of facts, in regard to matters connected with the construction of the Shenandohh Valley Railroad. The writer of the article has either been culpably negligent in keeping the run of the news in the Valley of Virginia, or else has published an intentional untruth; for if he had read the Spirit of Jefferson, or almost any paper published on the route of this road, he would have been informed that the engineers engaged in the survey of the Shenandoah Valley Railroad met in Luray about a month ago, and prepared the maps, profiles and estimates of the entire road, which were completed and laid before the Board at its meeting in Philadelphia, and upon which data the contract was taken. We hope the editors of the Union will keep themselves better informed in the future, and avoid exposing such utter ignorance of important affairs transpiring almost at their own doors.

THE HAGERSTOWN MAIL.

The editor of the Hagerstown Mail expresses interest in the success of the Shenandoah Valley Railroad, knowing that its completion will open up a large scope of country to the manufacturing trade of Hagerstown, to which other roads have already given an impetus,, and which the editor of the Mail has so ably supported in his paper. We gratefully acknowledge the many favors of the Mail, and of the people of Washington county, extended to the Shenandoah Valley Railroad.

ATTENTION, YOUNG MEN!

Every young man in this county who has arrived at the age of 21 years, or who will be that old before the election in October, should not fail to register if we have a registrar appointed, and if there is none appointed, should appear before the Board of Registration, and see that his name is enrolled on the registration books.

We have one. Register!

LAND DAMAGES.

We are gratified to learn that the landowners along the line are manifesting the utmost liberality in making terms with the Shenandoah Valley Railroad Company, in the matter of the right of way. There seems to be no doubt that the right of way will be secured in a short time through the county, with the exception of a few cases near Shepherdstown, as we have been informed.

The Democrats of Illinois succeeded in the late election in that State in electing a majority of the Supreme Judges. The Supreme Bench of Illinois now stands four Democrats to three Radicals.

THE WAR IN EUROPE.

From the condensed news column of the Baltimore Gazette, we make up the following

TUESDAY'S NEWS. Despatches have been received in London via Berlin, giving accounts of two small affairs between the Prussians and French, in both of which the former claim success.

The London Times publishes the projected treaty submitted by France to the Prussian Government, and guarantees its authenticity. The following are the points of this document: The preamble sets forth that the King of Prussia and Emperor of the French, in order to strengthen the ties of friendship between the two Governments and peoples, &c., hereby concluded the subjoined treaty:

In the first article Napoleon admits and recognizes the late acquisitions of Prussia from Austria. In the second the Prussian King engages to facilitate French acquisition of Luxemburg; in the third, the Emperor acquiesces in the union of the North and South German States, Austria excepted. In the fourth, France finding it necessary to absorb Belgium, Prussia lends her assistance to that measure. The fifth article is, as usual, one of offensive and defensive alliance between two railroad towards Metz. The French are now said to be concentrating at Dunkirk. WEDNESDAY'S NEWS.

Gunboats are being transported, in sections overland from Marseilles to operate, it is said, on Prussian rivers. Movements of numbers of French cruisers and steam frigates are noted at several points. The Emperor has received a telegram, with a report that a reconnoisance of the Prussians had been repelled near the town of Niederbronn; that one of their officers had been killed, and that there were two made prisoners.

A report has been received in London, from France, of another cavalry skirmish, in which it is claimed that the Prussians were beaten. The Emperor was to leave for the

The early evacuation of Italy by French troops is said to be almost a certainty. The Empress addressed the sailors of the fleet while at a Cherbourg, and was nearly overcome by the emotion of concluding. The effort of her visit is said to have been great. The Pall Mall Gazette councels England to make every preparation for war.

THURSDAY'S NEWS. The Paris official journal of yesterday, speaking of the secret treaty, declares that the French Government never had any knowledge of it, and, as far as the propositions were discussed between Count Von Bismarck and the French Ambassador on the subject of the project of alliance, the Emperor rejected them. A report is received from London that France had bad inquiry made of Prussia upon what conditions peace could be made? to which it was replied, "It is too late."

FRIDAY'S NEWS.

The Emperor, with the Prince Napoleon, left St. Cloud yesterday for the army. The Empress parted with them at the railway station, and was deeply moved. The health of the Emperor seemed to be good.

Count Von Bismarck has made a full statement as to the secret treaty to the German Ambassador to England, and uses some very plain language in regard to the action of France on the subject.

The Prussian Government has issued a call for volunteer marines for the defence of the coast, and offers large rewards for the destruction of hostile vessels.

A petition to allow several American officers to follow the French army, for the purpose of making observations, having been filed with the Government, the request was refused, and it was added that no foreign officers would be permitted to be near the army. Russia has increased her force in Poland by 200,000 men. The Emperor arrived at Metz yesterday afternoon and will issue a proclamation to the army to-day.

SATURDAY'S NEWS.

A Prussian account of a brief skirmish with detachment of French, at Volkingen, has been defeated, with a loss of one officer and eight men. The Prussians had one man wounded.

No foreign military officers will be allowed at Prussian army headquarters. England is spoken severely of in Berlin for supplying France with cartridges to slaughter Germans. An assurance has come to London from Pesth that Hungary will, under all circumstances, act with Austria. Companies of volunteer sharpshooters for local defence are to be organized throughout France, with the approval of the Emperor-

A telegram from Berlin tells of the advance of the Prussian forces in front of the French line, and that it was evident that decisive operations are near at hand. From London it is reported that skirmishing is going on between the outposts. The following is the proclamation of the Emperor to the army, on assuming command in person: Soldiers -- I come to take my place at your head to defend the honor and soil of our country. You go to combat against one of the hest armed of European countries, but other countries as valiant as this have not been able to resist your valor. It will be the same today.

The war which now commences will be ong and hardly contested, for its theatre will be places hedged with obstacles and thick with Soldiers, let each one do his duty and the God of Battles will be with us.

MONDAY'S NEWS. The mass of news items of almost every description from Europe, published to day, is mainly important as indicating in a general way what is about to happen. The condition, force and movements of the rival armies are almost entirely hidden from public knowledge by the most rigid censorship of all the means communicating news by both Governments; what is actually being done, therefore, can only be conjectured.

A communication is to be addressed by the English Government to the Governments of both France and Prussia, declaring that their explanations of the secret treaty are unsatis-

It is reported that Count Von Bismarck will take the field at the head of his regiment of cuirassiers.

The Emperor's address meets the favor of the French press of all political opinions. A proposed grand demonstration in Limerick, Ireland, in favor of France, has been forbidden by the authorities.

An intense feeling is said to prevail in Prussia against England on account of her "extraordinary" way of maintaining her neutrality. The press is unsparing in its attacks. An attack made upon Saarbucken on Saturday by a French force is reported to have been repulsed.

Count Benedetti says that Count Von Bismarck dictated the secret treaty to him, and has had posession of it ever since, which, he adds, accounts for its being in his hand writing.

Both the Emperor and the Prince Imperial were received at Metz with greatenthusiasm. It is reported from Paris that fighting has commenced in Baden: that families were leaving there for Switzerland, and that the Prussians had mined the banks of the Rhine. It is also said that Austria has senctioned the taking posession of Rome by Italy. The French troops from Rome are expected in France about the 10th of August. Important Railroad Contract.

The following, from the Philadelphia Enquirer of the 22d ultimo, gives a synopsis of aims and objects of the Shenandoah Valley Railroad Company :-

An important railroad contract was concluded at the Girard House, in this city, yesterday, by A. K. McClure, counsel for the Central Improvement Company, with the Sheuandoah Valley Railroad Company. The Improvement Company have contracted to construct the Shenandoah Valley Railcoad; including superstructure, stations, and everything ready for the equipment, from the Potomac river, at or near Shepherdstown, by way of Charlestown, Front Royal, Luray, Fishersville, Lexington and Buchanan, to the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad, near Salem, a distance of 233 miles, and to complete the same within two years.

The contracting parts is made up of strong railroad men, and they will be able to prosecute this important enterprise with the utmost vigor. The Cumberland Valley Railroal will be promptly extended from Hagerstown to Shepherdstown, a distance of but thirteen siles, and thus connect the Shenandoah Valley Road with the Cumberland Valley and Pennsylvania Central. It is the purpose of the managers of the Shenandoah Valley to extend their road as speedily as possible through the Clinch and Holsten Valleys, through a country of boundless mineral resources, to Koxville, and connect with the network of railroads radiating from that point, and also extending their line from the Clinch Valley, through Pond Gap, to connect with the Kentucky system of railroads, thereby making almost an air-line from Memphis to Philadelphia and New York.

ECONOMICAL HOUSEKEEPING. - We have now before us a circular published by the Sea Moss Farine Co., which we advise every one who takes an interest in the food question to read. It describes, concisely, the origin and uses of the edible Sea Moss Farine, and presents an array of scientific and other testimony in its favor which can hardly fail to convince the most skeptical of its paramount claims as an economic, wholesome, digestable, eminently nutritious, and very pleasant addition to the national caste. This at least is the conclusion at which many of the most eminent hotel keepers, artistic cooks, physicians, chemists, merchants, &c., of New York, have arrived, and they state their opinions on the subject over their own signatures, in the pamphlet to which we allude.

TELEGRAPH LINE.-President Borst, of the S. V. R. R. Co., stated in his speech to the people of Page county, on Monday last, that he had made all the necessary arrangements, whilst in Philadelphia, for the erection of a line of telegraph upon his road; and that in a few days they would commence the necessary arrangements for it; and that in a very short time we should have communication through it with all parts of the country. This is another evidence of the energy and earnestness with which the company has gone to work. Thus, "the work goes bravely on." [Page Courier.

DISTINGUISHED ABRIVAL .- Ex-President Jefferson Davis came down on the Va. & Tenn. train yesterday morning; took breakfast at the Piedmont hotel, and left on the Southside train for Richmond. Mr. Davis conversed pleasantly with a number of citizens during his brief stay. He is looking very well, and appears to be in good health and spirits. He goes, we learn, from Richmond to the White Sulphur Springs, and thence to Europe.

[From the Valley Star.] Charlestown.

We had not been in this goodly place for several years, but from the columns of its papers we had in our mind's eye that it was greatly improved, and so we found it. Where formerly was but a "common" a considerable village in the way of tasty and superb private residences, has been built, and several others are in course of contruction. The main street of the town has been greatly improved also, and but one scar defaces it. The dis-mantled Court-house and jail still reminds one of "grim visaged war" and the relentless animosity of the creatures, which that war brought to the surface- making them for the time being (oh, how long?) the political rulers of its people. There can be no better illustration of the infliction of radical wrong than the condition of the people of Jefferson. Here is a brave, refined and highly educated community, compltely under the domination of the "mud sills" of creation. Fifteen hundred (for it is not less, the Auditor's report to the contrary notwithstanding) of the best and wisest citizens of a country deprived of all political rights and priviliges and compelled to submit to a degradation all the more mortifying because of its source. There is not a single radical hound of all the number that now struts their brief authority over this people, the latchet of whose shoes they are unworthy to unloose, who ever fired a gun in defence of the Union. Every man of them took good care to remove their rotten carcases out ot harms way whenever danger impended .-There were many true Union men in Jefferson county when the war broke out, men who were so from principle, and who sacrificed much in defence of their cause triumphed. extended the right hand of fellowship to their late enemies, and such as these are now too proscribed by the class that we allude to. If ever a people were so cursed before-if ever the good and virtuous-not as individuals, but as embracing a whole community, were ever so completely at the mercy of mean, despisable wretches, we have failed to read in the history of the world from its foundation -

Verily is the "devil loosed for a season." Under all their misfortunes however, the good citizens of Charlestown bear up bravely. Not a wrinkle more, as far as we could perceive, lines their faces, and our venerable friend, J. Peyton B., is not a whit more gray (?) than he was ten years ago.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Binking Slowly.

Diseases that progress rapidly to a crisis are not the only ones to be dreaded. Canker or dry ret does not blast a tree as suddenly as a stroke of lightning, but unless arrested, it destroys it as certainly; and in like manner chronic debility, although it does not kill with the swiftness of yellow fever, is as sure to sap the sorings of life eventually as any acute disease, if not checked by invigorating medication. There is something inexpressibly touching in the spectacle of premature decay. Languor, pailor, emaciation, depression of spirits, and a distant for exertion, are its ordinary symptome, and they should be promptly met by tonic treatment.—The best invigorant and exhibitarant that can be administered in a case of this kind is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The stimulating principle of the preparation rouses the dormant energies of the system, and the strengthening and regulating properties aration rouses the dormant energies of the system, and the strengthening and regulating properties give a permanent and healthful impulse to the vital lorces thus brought into play. The falling appetite is re-awakened, the process of digestion and assimilation are quickened, the quality of the blood is improved, the secretions become more natural, and every organ that contributes to the nourishment of the body undergoes salutary change. By these means the repair of the physical structure is effected and its health and vigor restored. In no class of discase has the benificent operation of the Bitters ed and its health and vigor restored. In no class of discases has the benificent operation of the Bitters been more marked and striking than in those characterized by general debility and nervous prostration. Ladies affected with these silments find in this most wholesome of all tonics and correctives the safest and surest means of relief. It is strong to restore and powerless to injure. Such is the uniform testimony of "clouds of witnesses."

A WONDERFUL MICROSCOPE. Rev. Daniel Wise, D. D., editor of the New York Sunday School Advocate, thus speaks of the celebrated Craig Microscope:

"Its simplicity, cheapness and great magnifying power struck me with surprise. Then I was examining a fly's eye by its aid, and was struck with wender at the skill and power of the Creator which is displayed in its structure. When I saw a statement in an advertisement that the Craig Microscope magnified one hundred diameters, and could be bought for $2.50, I thought it was one of the hummagnified one hundred diameters, and could be bought for $2.50, I thought it was one of the humbugs of the hour, for I had paid $20 for a microscope not long before. But now I find it to be a really valuable instrument, which I should like to see introduced into the families of our readers in place of the manifold useless toys which please for an hour and is then destroyed. This microscope would both amuse and instruct them, and I advise every boy and girl who wishes to know the wonders which lie in little things, to save his money every boy and girl who wishes to know the wonders which lie in little things, to save his money until he has $2.75, which will pay for the microscope and the postage when sent by mail."

As a holiday gift this microscope is unsurpassed, being ornamental, instructive, amusing and cheap, and never losse its interest. Agents and dealers supplied on liberal terms. Asample will be mailed, post paid, to any address for $2.75, by E. H. Ross, 313 Locust St., St Louis, Mo.
